Local chapel gets spooky for couples looking to celebrate love at first bite.

LAS VEGAS (FOX5) — Weddings at Viva Las Vegas Wedding Chapel are getting spooky this week, with themed ceremonies planned all the way through Halloween.

Of course, Halloween will be the busiest day, with ceremonies planned for every 30 minutes between 9 a.m. and midnight.

Weddings this week feature classic haunting characters like Dracula, Beetlejuice, Gomez Addams, Chucky and many more. Themed bouquets will be available for couples to choose from and a hearse will be parked outside on Halloween for post-nuptial photo opportunities.

If you want to watch any of these weddings happen, there's an EarthCam stream on the chapel's website that shows it all.
