

WATCH: Times Square shooting scatters crowds following Knicks parade

By ALEX ALTMAN-DEVILBISS, June 19, 2026

NEW YORK (TNND) — Just hours after millions of people packed the streets of New York City to celebrate the Knicks' NBA victory, shots were fired in Times Square, sending crowds running for safety.

The sound of the gunfire could be heard on EarthCam video, and police told WABC a teenager was in custody after a large fight broke out.

According to officials, the teen was aiming and firing a gun at the corner of 44th Street and Broadway around 3:40 p.m. and then ran toward 42nd Street before running into an officer, which led to a foot chase.

After placing the suspect in custody, police said another shooting happened at 45th Street and Eighth Avenue, forcing people into stores and souvenir shops.

Police responded to the area and found a 26-year-old man with a stab wound to the neck, but he is expected to recover, officials said.

Additional suspects are still wanted as police continue to investigate what led to the gunfire.